

Figure 10 – Close-up seismic profile of middle parts of Figure 2 (SD to proximal ASM province), showing prominent northwest-dipping faults that may detach in a mid-crustal detachment surface. Slow water column velocities were depth converted, but remaining section is in TWT.