

Figure 18 – Northwest- to southeast-oriented profile across a thick contourite drift that is thickest above the SD province. Aggradation of this drift may have prompted down-slope squeezing of pre-existing salt diapirs in the ASM province. Profile from Kidston et al., (2005).