

Figure 2 – Line drawing of a composite seismic profile extending from the LaHave Platform (LP), across the Slope Detachment (SD) and Allochthonous Salt and Minibasin (ASM) provinces, and terminating in the Outer ECMA province where Seaward Dipping Reflections (SDRs) are recognized. Water column was depth converted, but remaining section is in two-way travel time. See Figure 1a for location.