

Figure 7 – Perspective view from the southwest showing the relationship between the Jurassic carbonate bank, slope detachment province, and the allochthonous salt and minibasin province. This image illustrates the striking absence of allochthonous salt diapirs in the slope detachment province.